

Artist Profile

Barbara Bosmans

I am a painter living in Somerville on the lovely Mornington Peninsula.

Many of Somerville's old buildings, dating from the early 1900's have supplied me with the motivation to record them

I have studied painting with Max Casey, John Balmain, Cathy van Ee and have been learning with Colin Johnson since 2004.

I belong to the Peninsula Art Society and the McClelland Guild of Artists.

Painting mostly in oils, I exhibit locally, and occasionally accept commissions.

I love to paint light and have a passion for recording the various stages and seasons in my garden. Our shelties also supply a fund of subject matter.
