

JOHN YOUNG

Bibliography:

Born Scotland, U.K. 1934, arrived Australia, in 1949, age 15.

Painter of historical subjects mostly in pen and wash.

Studies: Trained as a graphic artist, illustrator and designer.

John ran his own graphic design business for many years with some major accounts specialising in the areas of product and technical illustration, corporate identity, catalogues, packaging and general advertising material.

With his background in illustration and drawing, he has built up a fine reputation over many years for portraying Australian historical subjects, mainly in pen and wash, and was a member of the Australian Guild of Realist Artists in 1974.

Paints in most mediums, oil, acrylic, pastel, ink and watercolour.

Also worked as an illustrator and cartoonist and has produced work for the Sydney BridgeClimb and both the Milford and Routeburn Track walks in New Zealand.

Works mostly on commission but has had occasional one-man shows in Melbourne.

Represented: Wollongong City Gallery; Hinton Collection of New England Regional Gallery and many corporate institutional and private collections in Australia and overseas.
